

I Want You to Know How Things are with Us

- Have you had those times in your life, that when you pause and reflect back, you feel like you learned a lot? You feel like you have new insights that will significantly help you in the days ahead?
- Have you had those times in your life where you feel you have a better grasp on how the world works, and what your family's, church's role is in it?
- Have you had those times in your life where you realize that you are operating out of a wisdom consisting in your knowledge that you know little? That what you do know is an approximation of the truth? Realizing that we are in a consistent struggle to grasp the truth, always needing to light the flame of intelligence.

Your Lifework

1. What has happened in your life in the past month? What did you learn from these events?
2. Considering the things that you have learned, how did it change the way you think about your lifework?

Our Church Family's Lifework

3. What has happened in our life in the past month? What did we learn from these events?
4. Considering these things that we have learned, how did it change the way we think about our lifework?

- paradigms are strong
- paradigms take generations to change
- sometimes paradigm might skip a generation or two and reemerge later
- our role in this world is to simply get people into rightly handling the word of truth, simple but a constant war against ways of thinking
- transition discussions - understanding our times

Paul's Middle Letters

- the purpose of this is that we should all reach unity in our belief and loyalty - Eph 4:11-16
 - pray with joy, pray with us, pray that I may speak clearly, pray on every occasion, pray that I may announce boldly - Col 4:2-8, Eph 1:18-22
 - I want you to know how things are with us, you should know how things are with me - Eph 1
 - I want to encourage your hearts
- Paul had a team, he was building a family composed of families and in all of this he was building a global family
